CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD .- Messrs. Fisk & Hatch, the financial agents of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, who, together with President Huntington, made every effort to pre cent the road from going to protest during the and plan of settlement for submission to the and holders and creditors:

I. That the holders of the six per cent First years from Nov. 1, 1873, i. e., that falling due Nov. 1, 1873, May 1, 1874, Nov. 1, 1874, and May 1, 1875, into the seven per cent income bonds of the Company, at the rate of 85 per cent for the income bonds.

11. That the holders of the 7 per cent mortgage bonds fund 75 per cent of the principal of their bonds, and the interest for three years from J.n. 1, 1874, on the remaining 25 per cent into the income bonds at the same rate, viz: 85 per cent for the income bonds. By this means, in connection with the proposal contained in section IV., there will be recovered to the ownership and the control of the Company, for future use in extending the line from the present eastern terminus on the James river at Richmond, down the peninsula to deep water on the Chesapeake Bay, enlarging the equipment, and otherwise increasing the carning power of the road, something over $5,000,000 of the 7 per cent mortgage bonds now outstanding.

III. That the creditors of the Company holding 6 per cent first mortgage bonds as collateral security, take the same to account in full settlement of their respective claims, and fund the interest for two years from Nov. 1, 1873, on the bonds so taken, into income bonds, on the same terms as other holders of 6 per cent first mortgage bonds.

IV. That the creditors of the Company holding the 7 per cent mortgage bonds as collateral security, receive, in scettlement of their claims, income bonds at 85, for three-fourths of the amounts due them, and 7 per cent mortgage bards at 85 for the remaining one-fourth, with interest equitably adjusted, and fund the interest on the 7 per cent mortgage bonds so taken to account for three years from Jan. 1, 1874, into income bonds, on the same terms as other holders of 7 per cent mortgage bonds.

V. That the creditors of the Company holding no security, receive, in payment for their claims, income bonds at 85, with interest adjusted to date of income bonds. The income bonds issued in settlement, as above, are date i Oct. 1, 1873, and are payable twenty years after date, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable out of the surplus income of the road, the interest to accumulate until paid With the foregoing arrangement, carried into effect by the general assent thereto of the bondholders and eretitors, it is believed that the ultimate payment of every dollar will be insured.

The future financial plans of the Company with respect to its existing indebtedne s, in view of which the propositions to the bondholders and creators were made, may be briefly indieated as follows, viz: First: To apply the surplus earnings of the road over operating expenses, during the period for which thein erest on the first mertage bonds funded, after paying off arrears of labor, &c., to increasing the equipment and terminal facili-ties, and otherwise adding to the efficiency and earning power of the road, in order to give it the necessary capacity to earn the interest on the Second: To resume the regular payment of interest on the first mortgage b nds on Nov. 1, Third: To resume payment of interest on the 7 per cent bonus on Jan. 1, 1877. Fourth: To begin paying the accumulated in terest on the income bonds as soon as there shall be a surplus income for that purprise, and continue until all arrears on the income bonds shall be paid up, and to pay the interest thereon reg-

LOCAL NEWS.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY .- The weather yesterday was delightful and congregations of the usual size at this season of the year wre present in most of the churches. Rev. Mr. McDonough officiated in Christ Church panic, have prepared the following statement morning and night, the rite of baptism being performed at the latter service. There was no preaching at St. Paul's Church, though Rev. Mr. Stringfellow read the service there in the Morigage Bonds fund their interest for two morning. Grace Church and the M. P. Church were closed during the day. Rev. Mr. Braudt preached in the German Lutheran Church in the afternoon. The remaining pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Young Men's Christian Association:

"The Mission School on Queen street had a full corps of teaches and the usual attendance of scholars. "The Aims House Exercises were attended by a large congregation. A full committee were at work and held the usual stirring exercises. "The Jail Mission had an unusually full corps of workers, and the exercises were, doubtless, conducted with interest and benefit. "The Colporteur was not at work on the river front owing to sickness in his family.

The Open Air Meeting at Nailor's Hill was more numerously attended, and worked by a larger force of members than any like service of the Association during this summer. The exercises were of the usual spirited character, and were listened to with marked interest by the assemblage.

"The 4 o'clock prayer meeting in the Bap tist Church had the usual summer gathering, and was again the scene of sweet communion, solem prayer and hearty praise." (This meeting will be held next Sunday in the Methodist Protestant Church.)

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.-The following transfers of real estate, in this city, for the month of July, are reported by Green & Wise, real estate agents:

House and lot on the north side of Prince street, 42 feet 6 inches east of Fayette street, 15 feet 2 inches by 100 feet, F. L. Smith, &c., commissioners, to Wm. H. Burgess; $540.

Lot, &c., on the southeast corner of Columbus and Oronoco streets, 40 feet by 104 feet, J. S. Lane et als, to C. F. Lee, jr.; $1,400. House and lot on the north side of Wolfe street, between Lee and Fairfax streets, 23 feet 5 inches by 107 feet, Mechanic's Home Association, to R. H. Wade, trustee; $725. House and lot on the north side of Prince street, and west side of Pirt street, 25 feet 4

Rudd et als., to Samuel English; $1,600. GEORGE DORSEY .- The party confined in jail here as the perpetrator of the outrage at Silver Hill, whilst answering to the description of this party in very many particulars, has now been visited by several who were personally acquainted with Dorsey, and who unhesitatingly pronounce him as the wrong man. He talks in a slow, faltering manner, and very low tone, but there seemed not the slightest aversion to answering any question propounded; gave as his name Henry Weems; said his parents were not living; that he had lived with Mrs. Somervell, near Pope's Creek, and readily indicated the vocation of persons living in that vicinity whose names were suggested. We presume that he is only retained in jail now on account of his mental and physical condition, both of which are decidedly weak. In the meantime the true George Dorsey is still at large. Our Sheriff has received a communication from Alexandria apprizing him of the arrest and confinement in that city of a party supposed to be George Dorsey, and will go there at once with a witness to identify him. The statement in some of our exchanges that this county had offered $500 reward for his capture is a mistake-the only reward offered being that of J. Thomas Naylor, esq., of $100.-Marlboro

Prince Georgian. AN UNKNOWN ALEXANDRIAN. - The Philadelphia Record of Saturday last says :- "On Thursday evening, about half-past eight o'clock Mr. E. T. Burnett, residing at No. 31 S Thirty muth street, heard noises in the upper story of his house. He secured the services of Offifor inferior, 130 for good, and 136 for prime, and | cer Picket who went through the dwelling, leavred at 120, 125, 126 and 130 for fair to good, and | ing a Mr. Fisher to keep watch outside. The lat-133, 135, 136, 137, 138 and 140 for very good to ter soon saw a man come out of the window on the French root, walk along to the eaves and swing off, holding on by the lightning rod. The man slid down by the rod, and when he landed was seen to have a knife between his teeth. By this time Mr. Burnett and the officer had come out of the house and a struggle ensued between them and the burglar, the latter attempting to use the knife. Finally Fisher struck the thief a well-directed blow in the face, and he was finally secured. Upon being searched at the station house a gold watch, two pocket books containing money, a set of pearl jewelry and a large quantity of fine handkerchiefs and silk neckties were found on his person. Yesterday the prisoner was arraigned at the Central station and committed in default of $2,000 bail, under the name of Charles Johnson, of Alexan-

Frank Brown, colored, for disorderly conduct

John Thompson, colored, for disorderly conduct, was held for further examination. Isaac Johnson, colored, arrested for suppos ed complicity in the theft of two horses from Mesick & Russel of Washington, was turned over to police officers of that city. About twenty-five parties, mostly colored, arrested for keeping dogs without license, were fined, and discharged upon taking out the required paper.

FATAL SHOOTING CASE. - The Washington Star says: "A fatal shooting case took place at the Seven Locks, about eight miles up the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, on Friday night, in which a colored man employed on the canal boat E. D. Hartley was shot and instantly killed by Michael McQuade. The information received is to the effect that the deceased went ioto the store at that point, and a dispute occurred between him and McQuade, when it is alleged the deceased used abusive language towards McQuade, and made at him with a cheese-knife, and that McQuade seized a pistol burg to-day in attendance upon August Court. CORPORATION COURT. -The August term of the Corporation Court, Judge Lowe presiding, commenced this morning.

Lewis Helmuth was naturalized a citizen of the United States.

Genzberger vs. Driefus; motion on forthcoming bond; rule against James Ennis, constable, enlarged to the next term. On the petition of Wm. Cogan, James F. Muir was appointed committee of R G. White, an insane person. The accounts of James T. Burnett, R. C. Powell, and James Powell, against the city, were allowed.

Licenses to keep ordinaries were granted M. Fannon and C. D. Patterson. Court adjourned till to morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

MIDLAND RAILROAD .- "An account descrip tive of the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad, and of the terminal and intervening cities, towns and counties upon its line, containing full information in regard to the lands offered for sale to actual settlers by the company, on long credits and easy terms, and other facts of public interest, prepared by Dr. J. C. Hill, has just been is sued from the job office of the Lynchburg Virginian in the shape of a neat and well-printed pamphlet of seventy-four pages, full of useful and interesting matter. MURDER. - On Wednesday morning last Mr. Wm. C. Pumphrey, aged 18 years, son of Mr. Rector Pumphrey, of Prince George's county, Md., was found in his father's meadow with his skull crushed in and his face and shoulders badly bruised. The club, covered with blood with which the foul deed was committed, was found by his side. He lingered until Saturday morning, and, without being able to speak after he was found, expired. This young man was beloved by all who knew him, and his sad death is involved in mystery.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.-A colored man named Cornelius Myers, who lives in "Petersburg," while laboring under temporary aberration of mind, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by jumping overboard at Fishtown. His attempt was witnessed by a number of colored people standing by, none of whom, however, made an effort to save him, and had it not been for Mr. William Smith, who did rescue him, he would have surely drowned.

SETTLERS.-The Land Bureau connected with the Virginia Midland Railroad has sold, within the last few days, to actual settlers from Penusylvania, several farms. Among the settlers are Messrs. Wm. A. Mousley, Chas. Wisnay, W. S. Langyher, Patrick Cleary, and Bernard Devlin. Come ou! Plenty of room, land, and a hearty welcome awaits you.

COLORED EXCURSION. - The Warrenton Index says: "The Pioneer excursion party (colored) from Alexandria which reached here Wednesday and remained till Thursday morning conducted themselves in as orderly a manner as could have been expected. Their mirth was, however, rather boisterous.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Saturday night trips of the steamer Georgeanna to Point Lookout continue to receive the profits of their well-merited popularity. The boat is crowded upon each successive trip she makes, and all who avail themselves of the opportunity she affords of leaving behind where throughout the country the weather them the heat and dust of the city for a day fair. salt water bath, speak in the highest terms of the enjoyment they experience.

A woman, who lives near the city, called at police headquarters this afternoon for the purpose of having restored to her a cow which her husband had given to another woman. She stated that her husband had told her that "the little finger of the woman to whom he had given the cow was worth more than her-the wife's-whole body, and that that remark had made her jealous.'

The Upper Potomac Steamboat Company have determined, in case their new boat, the Mary Washington, does not make better time than she did on her last trial trip, after her grates have been lowered and when she is run with less water and more steam in her boilers than she had on that occasion, to put an additional boiler in her at once. The annual excursion of the Alexandria Catholic Beneficial Society, was made to day to Glymont. The steamer Pilot Boy, which was chartered for the occasion, left here at 8 o'clock this morning and half-past one this afternoon crowded with the excursionists. She will alto make another trip this evening, leaving here at half-past seven o'clock. This was the day the profesied storm was to have deluged the country, and for which dire calamity some of the colored people had put their houses in order, and, as they did'nt ex pect to have any more use for food, consumed all their provisions. But the flood had nt commenced at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Housekeepers and all who have been in the habit of visiting the market house will hereafter notice with regret the absence of Mrs. Barbara Nailor, a stall owner there for the last thirty-five years, whose death is mentianed under the obituary head in to-day's Gazette. The Boswell recently arrested in Washington must have been a white man and the one who was sent to the penitentiary from this city, for the Richmond papers announce his return to that prison, and the addition of a year to bis term, for his late escape.

As stated in Saturday's Gazette water was let on the Alexandria canal at the scene of the late break on that day. A slight leak, however, being discovered where the new trunk joins the bed of the canal, the feeding was suspended until it could be repaired. An adjourned meeting of the directors of the Arlington Turnpike Company was held at Ar lington last Saturday night, but the only business transacted was the acceptance of the official bond of the Secretary, Mr. Miles Munson. A retreat commenced at the Convent of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart (St. Mary's Academy,) under the direction of Rev. Father Tisdale, S. J., yesterday morning, and will continue one week. As will be seen by an advertisement else where in to-day's Gazette the members of the Ward and Township Conservative Committees are requested to meet at the City Sargeant's office to-worrow night. The chicken cholera is prevailing to a great and fatal extent in the neighborhood of Watkins' Mill. A prescription for its cure is published elsewhere in to day's Gazette. Watermelons just landed from the vessels which bring them to market, are now sold by wholesale and retail at Fishtown by Mr. Juo.

Travers.

Reliable farmers from the country back of this city say that the drought has destroyed the corn crop and that copious rains, were they now to come, would be too late to save it. The tide yesterday was so low that parties from this city, crossed over in boats to the flats on the opposite side of the river, and waded about on them. Passengers by the W. & O. R. R. train, this afternoon, report the usual large crowd at Lees-

Fatal Accident. MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Aug. 10.-J. Eager, of New York, and Master Charles Booth, son of the proprietor of the Mansion House, on Sunday evening, were driving over Kettle Bridge, east Mauch Chunk, when the horse took flight at a hole in the bridge, and backed the carriage to the side, throwing over both occupants; fatally injuring Mr. Enger and slightly injuring Master Booth. The bridge was under repair, and there was no railing on it, showing great negligence on the part of those repairing. Mr. Eager died before reaching the Mansion House. He fell forty feet.
